When leasing agents enter our offices, stand, and greet them, always making them feel welcome.

10. DRESS CODE

"I've really tried to learn the art of clothes, because you don't sell for what you're worth unless you look good."

—Lady Bird Johnson

We encourage our agents to dress in business casual attire. Clothing certainly does not determine one's actual competence and credibility; it does, however, influence others' perception of those qualities — and that reality impacts career opportunities & relationships. Our policy is no flip-flops, holes in jeans, cargo shorts, or t-shirts. When determining office clothing, we ask that you project a professional, business-like image while enjoying the advantage of more casual and relaxed clothing.

11. AFTER HOURS CALLS:

Phones are transferred to agent cell phones starting at 6:00pm as determined by a volunteer schedule. If you volunteer, we do require that the phones be answered on your assigned day from 6:00-9:00 pm. If you choose not to take after-hours calls, please let your manager know. 13. SEND vs. ESCORT:

It is our company policy at PERCH to escort all customers. Many communities will offer a commission, or even the same commission as escort, for sending customers. There is a multitude of reasons why we choose not to send our customers, which you will learn in an upcoming training session. By signing below, you are acknowledging that you agree to ESCORT your customers.

14. SOCIAL MEDIA:

"Your Twitter Profile is your business card." –Germany Kent

You are responsible for everything you post, and everything you post will be a reflection of you. In turn, be mindful of what you post. We live in a time where social media is continuing to grow and boost our opportunities, and we believe that to be true of our agents' career. Agents should not post comments regarding customers or commissions on social media outlets.
